

JUNIOR NATIONAL AND PROVINCIAL TRAINING CAMPS - 2023

1. National Squad Members Training Camps

These camps will ONLY be for the players that are in the National Squads.

This camp will be self-funded for all players. BSA will pay for the Junior National coach's flights, accommodation and shuttles.

All players who accept the invitation, must be committed for the full duration of the training camp. Players won't be allowed to choose what dates or times they want to attend.

An attendance register must be filled out at every session and sent to me (Emelda Botha) at the end of the camp.

2. Provincial Training Camps

Provincial training camps will take place in Alberton, Kimberly, Cape Town, Durban and East London.

These camps will be run by the National Junior Coach, all coaches in that province, who can assist him are encouraged to come down and work with the National Junior coach.

These camps are open for the province to invite players. A list of names and ages of the players must be sent to myself (Emelda Botha) beforehand, so that the camp can be organized accordingly.

All players attending this camp must pay the hosting province R150, the monies collected from each player will go towards paying for the National Junior coaches Accommodation, meals, transport and shuttles. BSA will cover the National Juniors Coaches flights only. Any shortfalls will have to be paid by the hosting province.
